THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. RAMULU

WRIT PETITION No.15235 of 2005

O R D E R:

This writ petition is filed seeking a Mandamus declaring the inaction on the part of the respondents 1 to 3 in taking action against the fifth respondent-Managing Committee as illegal, arbitrary, unconstitutional and in violation of the provisions of the Andhra Pradesh Cooperative Societies Act, 1964, and consequently to direct the respondents 1 and 2 to supercede and disqualify the fifth respondent-Managing Committee.

The only grievance of the petitioner is that the respondents
1 to 3 are not taking any action against the fifth respondent-Managing Committee though it had committed several irregularities in conducting the business of cooperative banking.

Though several allegations have been made in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition, the learned counsel for the fifth respondent-Managing Committee has contended that after filing this writ petition, a similar writ petition, being W.P.No.3504 of 2006, was dismissed by this Court, by order dated 04-04-2006, and that the petitioner is in the habit of making such false allegations against the fifth respondent-Managing Committee. It is further contended that apart from the above, it is for the authorities concerned to enquire into such matters and decide the same, and therefore, the writ petition cannot be entertained.

Be that as it may, without expressing any opinion on merits of the case, it would be appropriate in the interests of justice if the writ petition itself be treated as the representation made by the petitioner and if there is any truth in the allegations made by the petitioner, the same be enquired into by the authority concerned and appropriate orders be passed in accordance with law, if not already been enquired into.

With the above directions, the writ petition is disposed of.

No costs.
